

Guest lecture

Regulating Police investigations through the US Constitution: Searches and Seizures; Statements.

Dear Colleagues and Friends,

you are cordially invited to the guest lecture Regulating Police investigations through the US Constitution: Searches and Seizures; Statements.

Our guest lecturer, prof. Charles D. Weisselberg will review the structure of US laws and address why the US Constitution (and judicial interpretations of it) provide the basic mechanisms to regulate police investigations, particularly searches and interrogation.

The guest lecture will take place in the classroom Karol Josef Wojtyla (P3) on Thursday, March 30th from 16:00 to 18:30.

The guest lecture will be held in English.

Kind regards,
